

Advanced Good Agricultural Practices/Good Handling Practices for Fruit & Vegetable Producers Training

Maryland Department of Agriculture
Downstairs Conference Rooms
50 Harry S. Truman Parkway
Annapolis, MD 21401

MARCH 27, 2017
8:30 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

The Maryland Department of Agriculture (MDA), the University of Maryland (UMD), and University of Maryland Extension (UME) will conduct advanced food safety training for fruit and vegetable growers on March 27, 2017. The course is intended for growers that have already attended a basic GAP training. The topics covered will assist growers in implementing additional requirements for compliance with the FSMA Produce Rule and meet the continuing education requirements required by some certification programs such as Harmonized GAP.

Topics to be covered include:

- FDA Cooperative Agreement and FSMA Produce Rule – University of Maryland Agriculture Law Initiative
- Update on current Food Safety Research
- Making sense of Water Samples
- Recall Planning

Training registration fee is $15 per person which includes lunch and training materials.

Make checks payable to MDA - FQAP, and mail to MDA, 50 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Room 449, Annapolis, MD 21401 with registration form. Registration must be received by March 23rd.
