In 2013, FSA developed the Microloan program to better serve the unique financial operating needs of beginning, niche and the smallest of family operations by modifying its Operating Loan application, eligibility and security requirements. In 2016, this was expanded to also include the Ownership Loan application. This program provides a more flexible access to credit.
Microloans

Microloans are operating loans, either annual or term, that do not exceed $50,000.

The application process is simplified, with paperwork and verification requirements that are more proportional to smaller loans and operations.

Alternative managerial requirements for Microloans may be acceptable.

- Micro Operating Loan Uses: Any eligible Operating Loan use.
- Micro Ownership Loan Uses: Any eligible Ownership Loan use.
A targeted underserved farmer, rancher, or agricultural producer is one of a group whose members have been subjected to racial, ethnic, or gender prejudice because of his or her identity as a member of the group without regard to his or her individual qualities. SDA groups are women, African Americans, American Indians, Alaskan Natives, Hispanics, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

Reserves direct and guaranteed loan funds for targeted underserved persons. Non-reserved funds also can be used by targeted underserved persons;
A beginning farmer or rancher is an individual or entity who (1) has not operated a farm or ranch for more than 10 years; (2) meets the loan eligibility requirements of the program to which he/she is applying; (3) substantially participates in the operation; and, (4) for FO loan purposes, does not own a farm greater than 30 percent of the average size farm in the county.

Reserves direct and guaranteed loan funds for beginning farmers.
