Subject of Charges Revisited: Responsible Veterinarian vs. Owner. Ms. Spirt reviewed recent charges and noted that with more and more practices being purchased by corporations, the charging documents need to be consistent. Board members agreed that administrative functions are the responsibility of the owner while standards of care and medical protocols, including protocols for removing expired medication, are under the Responsible Veterinarian. Owners must ensure that Responsible Veterinarians understand their role.

Maximum time allowed for Request for Records. Investigator Husk reported that she is having difficulty getting records from a few veterinarians involved in complaint investigations. She was instructed that after two failed attempts in which there was no show of good faith, the incident should be brought back to the Board for charges or a summons to appear.
